

Courses And Programs For Students Of English As A Foreign/Second Language

The following are programs and courses for students who have lived most of their lives in a non-English-speaking country and for whom English is not their first language

Program or Course	Description	Additional Information
American Language and Culture Institute	Intensive study of English language skills and orientation to U.S. Culture (special fees for this program; no university credit).	See "Regional and Continuing Education" in the University Catalog or consult the Center for Regional and Continuing Education.
EFLN 170 English as a Foreign Language	Study of the English language; generates General Education credit in breadth, Area C2.	See below.
EFLN 270 English as a Foreign Language.	Further intensive practice and analytical study of the English language; generates General Education credit in breadth, Area C2.	See below.

Courses And Programs For Teachers, Instructors, And Tutors Of English As A Foreign/Second Language

The following are professional programs to prepare students for tutoring or teaching English as a Foreign/Second Language.

Program or Course	Description	Additional Information
EDSL 610 Foreign/Second Language Teaching: Methods	Theories, methods, approaches, and strategies for teaching foreign/second languages	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
EDSL 633 Foreign/Second Language Teaching: The Cultural Dimension	Examination of the cultural dimensions of language teaching and learning; incorporation of standards in instruction and materials; intercultural competence and heritage learners.	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
EDSL 635 Current Research and Developments in Foreign/Second Language Education	Classroom-oriented research, and applications; professional standards and portfolio: and language learning strategies	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
EDSL 636 Foreign/Second Language Education: Testing and Assessment Practices	Assessment and evaluation of foreign/second language skills and proficiency; test development and evaluation; and related sociocultural issues.	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
EDSL 637 Curriculum Development: Foreign Languages/ESL	Articulation of curriculum theory and practice in foreign languages and EFL/ESL; materials and program evaluation; and development of academic language and competence.	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
EDCI 689 Professional Field Experience	Supervised classroom EFL/ESL teaching experience in university or community college; for MA candidates in Teaching International Languages and Graduate TESOL certificate.	See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
MA in Teaching International Languages	MA degree for foreign language teachers (FLNG/EFL), foreign/second language (FLNG/EFL/ESL) college and university instructors, and other professionals teaching world languages.	See "The Masters Degree in Teaching International Languages in "Education" in the University Catalog .
Graduate TESOL Certificate	An 18-unit Graduate TESOL Certificate Program that encompasses all courses in the EDSL sequence above as well as a professional field experience (EDCI 689).	May be taken concurrently with or separate from the MA in Teaching International Languages. See "Education" course offerings in the University Catalog .
ENGL 470 Theory and Practice of Second Language Acquisition	Introduction to major issues in second language acquisition and teaching. Includes three hours field experience.	See "English" course offerings in the University Catalog .
ENGL 671 Advanced Theories of Second Language Acquisition	Exploration of major theories of second language acquisition.	See "English" course offerings in the University Catalog .
ENGL 689T Internship in Teaching College English	Supervised classroom EFL/ESL teaching experience in university or community college; for English MA candidates only.	See "English" course offerings in the University Catalog .